

2026: GORFFENNAF 7 – 12 JULY

COMPETITION SYLLABUS 2026

CROESO! WELCOME!

It is a huge pleasure to introduce our competition syllabus for 2026. Next summer, from Tuesday 7 – Sunday 12 July 2026, we'll be welcoming competitors from around the world to Wales once again, in our unique international celebration of all things music and dance.

The Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod is located in the idyllic town of Llangollen in North East Wales, with the majority of the competitions taking place in our magnificent 4,000-seater Pavilion.

In the words of Dylan Thomas, the legendary Welsh poet and writer, "The town sang and danced, as though it were right and proper as the rainbow or the rare sun to celebrate the old bright turning earth and its bullied people. Are you surprised that people still can dance and sing in a world on its head? The only surprising thing about miracles, however small, is that they sometime happen."

We hope you will join us for what will be a truly joyful occasion!

Warm regards,

Dave Danford, Artistic Director

2026 Adjudicators

Tori Longdon

Tori Longdon is the Principal Conductor of the Covent Garden Chorus, and the Associate Chorus Director of the London Philharmonic Choir, the choir of the London Philharmonic Orchestra. She is in demand internationally following her work on the King's Coronation Concert in May 2023 when she coached eighteen choirs from around the United Kingdom to perform for the King.

She is the co-founder of WorldChoir, formerly the Stay At Home Choir, an international community of thousands of choral singers which she leads together with Swingles baritone Jamie Wright.

Tori is currently a conductor for Songs Of Praise on BBC1, as well as an adjudicator for Young Choir Of The Year. She appeared on BBC2 as a judge on two series of The Choir with Gareth Malone. She has interviewed some of classical music's most famous names, including Marin Alsop, John Rutter, Sir Karl Jenkins, Sofi Jeannin and Christopher Tin.

She now travels the world leading masterclasses, adjudicating competitions and working with young conductors, most recently in Australia, Germany, and Finland. She has written several articles for ClassicFM's online magazine, and lectured for the Artist Development postgraduate course at the Royal Academy of Music.

Ken Wakia

Ken Wakia is a distinguished Kenyan conductor, educator, and cultural diplomat. From humble beginnings in Homabay, Kenya, he pursued a Bachelor of Education in Music at Kenyatta University and later earned a Master of Music in Choral Conducting from the University of Miami as a Fulbright Scholar.

Ken founded the Nairobi Chamber Chorus to empower young Kenyan musicians and has led the ensemble in performances worldwide, including at Queen Elizabeth II's Diamond Jubilee and the American Choral Directors Association conference. He has conducted internationally with groups such as the World Youth Choir and the Nairobi Orchestra, and was the founding director of the Safaricom Choir.

From 2010 to 2022, Ken served as Cultural and Educational Affairs Specialist at the U.S. Embassy in Nairobi, overseeing cultural diplomacy programs. He co-founded the AVoice4Peace initiative, promoting peace through choral music.

Ken's contributions have earned him recognition as one of the Top 100 Most Influential Africans in 2024, African Image Maker in 2019, and a Nexus Global Leadership Council Member. His work reflects a deep commitment to using music as a force for global unity and cultural exchange.

Michel Camatte

Michel Camatte is a professional musician who has been during forty years director of great conservatoires of music in France (Clermont-Ferrand, Tours and Aix en Provence).

During these years, he has been the permanent conductor of many choirs and orchestras in these towns and has been invited many times to conduct professional orchestras, in France and abroad.

He is actually the conductor of a symphony orchestra and a female choir, in the region of Aix en Provence.

He has been invited to adjudicate in great international choral competitions in Europe, especially in Llangollen.

Dave Danford

Dave Danford has been the Eisteddfod's Artistic Director since 2023, and combines his role with a freelance career as a professional percussionist, conductor, orchestral contractor, arranger, and composer. He performed at the Eisteddfod for the first time in 2010, and has been involved in the production of concerts here since 2012. He was born in Swansea, and studied at the Royal Welsh College of Music & Drama.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. Participants are encouraged to apply for more than one competition, provided that they comply with the different conditions relating to each individual competition. Furthermore, choir, dance group and ensemble members are encouraged to enter the solo competitions. It is useful for the Eisteddfod to have an indication from groups with their applications as to whether they may be putting forward soloists for solo competitions.
2. The Entry Fee is NON-REFUNDABLE and the fee is payable only ONCE per group/ solo, NOT per competition. This can be paid by credit card, debit card or online at www.llangollen.net/fees . This must be paid by the appropriate application date and is payable only once per group / soloist. You will be taken to the payment page after completing the online application form. Please call the office on 01978 862000 if you prefer to pay over the phone.
3. Please do not send music scores of own choice items with the application forms.
4. Applications submitted in accordance with the regulations (see How to Apply) will be examined at our selection day in late 2025 for Choirs and Groups, and spring 2026 for Solos. Any incomplete applications on this day will be automatically disqualified. After selection a confirmation email will be sent out to each applicant. Successful applicants will receive additional information and forms to be completed.
5. You must apply using the official Eisteddfod Online Application Forms. Choirs, Dance Groups, Ensembles and Non-Competitor Groups must use the Group Application Forms; soloists (including non-competitor soloists must use the Solo Application Form. Forms are available online www.eisteddfodcompetitions.co.uk
6. Please note that Groups and Soloists must submit a recent recording (video/audio as appropriate) from the last 6 months with their application form. This should be no more than 5 minutes in duration. The recorded music need not include your competition pieces, but must reflect the genre of each competition applied for. For applications in Competitions A1 to A5, at least one piece on the recording must be unaccompanied. Applications will not be considered unless the application form, fee and the recording are received by the deadline. Groups and Soloists must submit a recording relevant to each competition for which they are applying. Please note that pieces may not be repeated in different competitions (except for Choir of the World).

7. All Application Forms should be submitted as soon as possible, but participants should await notification of acceptance before making final personal and/or travel arrangements. The Eisteddfod Office will inform all groups by 18 December 2025 as to whether their application to compete has been successful. Applicants for solo competitions will be similarly notified by 6 March 2026.

8. No soloist or group is allowed to make two separate entries in one competition (as an example, soloists may only enter with one instrument in any one instrumental solo competition).

9. All participants, except choir and band conductors, dance group leaders and accompanists, must be of amateur status, i.e. people who do not earn their principal livelihood from music or dance performance as appropriate.

10. For the purpose of deciding nationality for residents of the UK, England, Northern Ireland, Scotland, and Wales are considered as four separate countries.

GENERAL INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS FOR ENTRANTS AFTER ACCEPTANCE

1. Group and Solo Repertoire: Once selected, choirs, soloists and ensembles should give full details of their intended competition repertoire items on the online form provided. These must be returned, along with either a physical original copy, or a PDF sent via email of each piece to be performed by 6 March 2026 for Choirs and Ensembles and 3 May 2026 for soloists. NB: any music scores received after this will incur a late administration fee.

Due to Copyright regulations we cannot accept electronic scores without proof of purchase or ownership. We will not accept music without this.

Please send your music to our postal address below, or email to music@llangollen.net. Make sure each score is clearly marked with your group name and competition number. Any changes in order of competition pieces should be advised to the Music Office by 6 March 2026 for Choirs and Ensembles and 3 May 2026 for soloists at the very latest.

Copyright and license checks have to be made by our team before any performances can be shown on television or streamed online. Choirs who fail to submit their full repertoire lists by the deadline may not be allowed to compete.

2. Bursary Awards: The Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod believes that fees/cost must not be a disincentive for groups to consider applying. With this in mind, we are offering a range of small grants from our bursary fund to support groups from every background. If you are accepted at the selection process, we want to make sure that you have the best opportunity to take part in the Eisteddfod regardless of your financial circumstances. Bursary information and application forms are available online www.eisteddfodcompetition.co.uk

3. Competition Time Limits:

Participants can expect to be penalised if stipulated time limits are exceeded in their performance.

4. Group and Solo Accompaniment:

Choirs and Groups may use their own accompanists, but if an official Eisteddfod accompanist is required, this will be at the charge of £40.

Please notify the Music Office on music@llangollen.net as soon as possible. This must be booked in and paid for before 6 March 2026 for groups and 2 April 2026 for soloists..

Time Over-run	Penalty
Up to 30 seconds	Nil
30 seconds – 1 minute	1 Mark
1 minute – 1.5 minutes	2 Marks
1.5 minutes – 2 minutes	4 Marks
2,5 minutes – 3 minutes	6 Marks
3 minutes – 4 minutes	8 Marks

5. Preliminary Tests: these will be held in all solo competitions and in any other competition in which it is considered necessary. Details of any group competition Preliminary Tests will be given in your Official Acceptance email. These generally take place on the morning of the Final of that competition, or on the previous day. If there are a large number of applications for some group competitions, a preliminary test will be held at the Music Office's discretion

7. Additional Performances: We aim to give groups the opportunity to undertake an additional public performance on either our outside stages on the Eisteddfod field or at other local venues. NB: we may not be able to offer this opportunity to all groups; the arrangements are made at the discretion of the Music Office.

8. Overseas Participants are asked not to make private arrangements to perform at other venues during the festival without prior consultation with the Music Office.

9. Solo Vocal Rehearsals: These will be arranged by the Music Office for all competitions if you are using the Official Eisteddfod Accompanist.

10. Group Vocal Rehearsals: Each choir will be allocated a rehearsal time for each competition for which they have been selected, at a time that fits with the performance schedule. Each group will only be given a 20–30 minute rehearsal for each competition they enter.

11. All pianos are tuned Diapason Normal Pitch (A–440)

12. Procedure for Competitions: All choir/group leaders will receive full guidance regarding backstage arrangements via email.

13. Staging: The Eisteddfod is held in the Royal International Pavilion, which seats 4,000 people. The stage measures 29 x 9 meters. Tiered staging for choirs is available for up to 80 singers. Further details regarding the Eisteddfod Field outside stage dimensions will be available to accepted participants as appropriate.

14. International Evening Concerts: Groups/Choirs may be invited, at the Music Office's discretion, to perform in the evening concerts.

15. International Costume: In order to bring truly international colour to our festival, choirs/ groups who wear national/stage costume are asked to remain in costume throughout their time at the Eisteddfod 2025. We urge all groups that are in Llangollen on Friday 10 July 2026 to take part in our Parade of Nations through the town, and to provide representatives for the flag parade at the start of the evening concert. This is a part of the Eisteddfod experience that shouldn't be missed!

16. Social Gatherings and Impromptu Performances: We encourage all of our competitors and non-competitors to take part in social gatherings and impromptu performances with others. Specific opportunities are provided in the Friends' Area and Competitors' Club.

17. Photography Consent: In applying to take part in the Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod all applicants consent to photographs being taken of their performances at any part of the event and grant Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod the right to use the photograph(s) resulting from the event and any reproductions or adaptations of the photograph(s) for all general purposes in relation to Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod's work including, without limitation, the right to use them in any publicity materials, websites, newspapers and magazine articles whenever Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod wishes to do so.

18. Copyright: The consent required by the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988, as amended, is hereby given to the Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod Ltd and its assigns to make recordings and/or broadcasts in sound and/or vision of all performances given at any time during the Eisteddfod for any purpose. Additionally, all property rights subsisting in any such performance are, on coming into being, hereby assigned in totality to the Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod Ltd and each competitor hereby waives such moral rights to which they are now or may in the future be entitled pursuant to Sections 77–84 of the Copyright Designs and Patents Act 1988.

In applying to compete at the Eisteddfod, each competitor certifies that no other assignment or agreement to assign, in respect of these rights, has been or shall be entered into by the competitor or by representatives on his/her behalf.

Unpublished works: Please ensure the correct permissions have been obtained to use any unpublished works.

Published works: Please ensure that if you intend to perform any published works that you secure written permissions from the publishers to perform such works at the Eisteddfod.

19. Selections and Adjudications: The decision of the Management Team of the International Eisteddfod, or the Adjudicators acting on its behalf in any matter concerning the competition, is final and binding upon all parties, and this is an agreed condition of application in all competitions. Any complaints must be made in writing to the Music Office.

20. Age Restrictions for Groups: Groups competing may allow for up to 10% of the group to be below or above the competition age range. For example, if the competition specifically asks for age range of 12–18, a proportion of the group can be either under 12 or over 18, but not greater than 10% of the group. Groups should meet the backstage copyright team on the day of their competition to confirm the ages within their group.

21. Prizes: In the event that only 3 groups/soloists are in one competition. The Eisteddfod, management team and adjudicators will only award 1st and 2nd place prizes
